Biographical Sketch:

Patrick O'Neill, 1940-2006, was born in Toronto, Ontario. He married Mora Dianne O'Neill in 1967 and had two sons, St. John and Brendan. O'Neill obtained a Bachelor of Arts in History from St. Jerome's College, University of Waterloo in 1967, a Master of Arts in Theatre from the University of South Dakota in 1969, and a Ph.D. in Theatre from Louisiana State University in 1973.

O'Neill made a significant contribution to our national heritage as a leading scholar in Canadian theatre history. He published extensively in this area and was able to further the study of numerous theatrical companies with his work. In 1995 he received the Richard Plant Essay Prize from the Association for Canadian Theatre Research. In 2002 he received an Award for Research Excellence from Mount Saint Vincent University and in 2004 he received a Fulbright Research Fellowship, awarded by The Department of State, Washington.

O'Neill worked as an Assistant Professor (1972-1975) at the University of Saskatchewan in Saskatoon, Saskatchewan and as an Assistant Professor (1975-1980), Associate Professor (1980-1993), and Professor (1993-2006) at Mount Saint Vincent University in Halifax, Nova Scotia. He also worked as a Visiting Fellow at Royal Holloway College, at the University of London (1982-1983), and an Associate Professor, Part-time (1987-1991) at Dalhousie University in Halifax, Nova Scotia.

During his time at Mount Saint Vincent University O'Neill served in numerous positions including, Director of Research and International Liaison Officer (2002-2004), Coordinator, Speech and Drama (1975-2002), and as a Member of the University Senate (2002). He also served on numerous committees including the University's Tribute Committee (1999-2006), University Review Committee (1998-1999), and the Exceptional Service Awards Committee (1998-2006). Patrick O'Neill was also involved with various drama presentations including Getting Out, Swingtime Canteen, Nonsense II, The Compleat Wrks of Wlm Shkspr (Abridged) and Little Shop of Horrors.

In addition to his work at the University, O'Neill also served as a member of the Nova Scotia Innovation Trust (2002-2004), as a member of the Nova Scotia Health Research Foundation (2002-2004), as a Maritime Representative for the Association for Canadian Theatre Research (1998-2000), on the SSHRC Research Committee for Architecture, Fine Arts, Drama (1993-1995), as a Parliamentarian for the Registered Nurses Association of Nova Scotia (1984-1998), as a Parliamentarian for the Association of Professional Engineers of Nova Scotia (1996), as an External Reviewer, SSHRC applications (various years), as Treasurer for the Association for Canadian Theatre History (1982-1984), and as an External Examiner for a University of Toronto Ph.D. thesis, a McGill University M.A. thesis, and a University of Saskatchewan M.A. thesis.
